- According to Pesik, the political representative of the Indonesian Repub-lic in Manila, local Indonesian officials are in contact with the interior l. of Indonesia through an Indonesian group in New Delhi having direct radio contact with the Indonesian interior. Communications between Manila and New Dolhi are by cable.
- Raden Mas Mohammed Surianta Djumena, the Indonesian counselor of the Dutch legation in Manila, recently invited Pesik for dinner at his home, where 2, he suggested that Mrs. Harsono, wife of the Indonesian trade representative be made head of an "aid to Indonesia" movement. Pesik disregarded Djumena's suggestion and discussed the matter with Mrs. Queson, widow of the former president. It is believed that one of Mrs. Quezon's daughters will head an Indonesian relief movement - still in the planning stage - in the Philippines.
- Pesik intimated that American-Indonesian Corporation (AIC) has assumed the responsibility for handling silver bullion of the Indonesian Republic, and that the local office of AIC is making limited disbursements to Indonesian officials from these official funds.
